10. (Unclassified - GLC) Received a call from Vince Rakestraw, Deputy Attorney General for Congressional Relations, who said they were having a meeting this afternoon with the congressional staff people handling the Freedom of Information bill and asked if we wanted to have our representative sit in on the meeting. He said the meeting would cover four issues: in camera court review, changes, time limitations and FBI files. Largely on the basis of [REDACTED] conversation with James Kronfeld, Staff Counsel, House Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Government Information, Committee on Government Operations, I told Rakestraw that I thought our position on this legislation was clear both to the Department's representative and the congressional staff people and unless he wanted an Agency representative present, I thought it would just add to the numbers of people who would be present. Rakestraw said he agreed with this but wanted to be sure we weren't omitted if we wished to attend.
